1 Corinthians 13

Is it possible for two people to fall in love and stay in love forever?

Love is patient, love is kind. It does not envy, it does not boast, it is not proud. It is not rude, it is not self-seeking, it is not easily angered, it keeps no record of wrongs. Love does not delight in evil but rejoices with the truth. It always protects, always trusts, always hopes, always perseveres.
(1 Corinthians 13:4-7, NIV)

Love bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things.
(1 Corinthians 13:7, ESV)
